CAREERS APPOINTS NEW BOARD MEMBERS

Valhalla, NY - - CAREERS for People with Disabilities, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to finding productive employment for individuals with disabilities, announces the following people have recently joined its board of directors:

John Keck of Yorktown, a special educator and teacher for 34 years and now retired, currently works as a special education consultant to Pawling Central Schools. Keck has also taught at many colleges including Mercy College in Dobbs Ferry. He is a volunteer with the organization Handicapped Encounter Christ, which he founded 35 years ago, and has served on the boards of the National Catholic Partnership with Disabled and the Mariandale Retreat and Conference Center.

Maggie Kendall of Tarrytown is in marketing at NBC Universal in New York City. She holds an MBA from New York University's Stern School of Business and a bachelor's degree in advertising from Syracuse University.

Sherry Saturno, of Tarrytown, is the director of social services for Sprain Brook Manor Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Scarsdale. She holds Masters' degrees from Columbia University School of Social Work and Long Island University School of Management and Public Service, and completed a Certificate in Aging program at Boston University's Institute for Geriatric Social Work.

About CAREERS for People with Disabilities, Inc.

Since 1987, CAREERS has provided job placement and support services to people with disabilities in Westchester and Putnam Counties and made over 1,700 individual job placements and provided services to thousands of people. CAREERS' mission is to insure that all disabled individuals find sustained, meaningful employment in the communities in which they live. They work one-one-one with each client and employer to facilitate ongoing success in the workplace, and help those with disabilities reach their maximum level of self-support and self-reliance. All of CAREERS' services are provided free of charge to clients and employers.

For additional information about how CAREERS helps disabled individuals, or employers in need of qualified help, contact CAREERS' Valhalla office, which serves central and lower Westchester at 914-741-8500, or the Carmel office, which serves northern Westchester and Putnam Counties, at 845-225-8007.
