TD Charitable Foundation Supports CAREERS for People with Disabilities

June 5, 2013 – Carmel, New York – The TD Charitable Foundation, the charitable giving arm of TD Bank, America's Most Convenient Bank®, recently donated $2,500 to CAREERS for People with Disabilities, Inc. as part of the bank's commitment to giving back to the community.

The grant will support CAREERS' School-to-Work Transition program, which trains disabled students in the skills necessary to find, interview for and be successful in a job in their community.

"We are thrilled to count TD Charitable Foundation among the supporters of our services, which we provide free of charge to disabled individuals," said Tina Cornish-Lauria, CAREERS Executive Director.

"The success we achieve with our one-on-one relationships with each student and employer ensures ongoing achievements in the workplace, and helps the youth we work with become self-reliant, confident, contributing members of their community."

A staunch commitment to active involvement in the local community is a vital element of the TD Bank philosophy. The TD Charitable Foundation provides support to affordable housing, financial literacy and education, and environmental initiatives, many of which focus on improving the welfare of children and families.
